 - (g) the term "Corporate Associate" shall mean any named or listed employee of the "corporate member".

- (h) the term "serviceman" shall mean any member of any branch of Her Majesty's Forces.
- (ha) the term "Provisional Member" shall mean any person so defined in the Third-A Schedule of these Rules
- (i) the term "Executive Committee", shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Rule 23.
- (j) the term "Sub-Committee" shall mean any such Sub-Committee duly constituted by the Executive Committee under the provisions of Rule 33 (e) and (f).
- (k) words denoting the masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine gender.
- (l) unless inconsistent with these Rules all references to the singular shall be deemed to include the plural and vice versa.
- (m) the term Real Estate shall mean all land and buildings owned by the Association.

OBJECTS

6. The Association is established with the express purpose of pursuing the aims and objects of RNZRSA as expressed hereunder.

The objects for which the Association is established are:-

- (a) Loyalty to uphold the sovereignty of New Zealand as a member of the Commonwealth of Nations and as a member of the United Nations.
- (b) To foster and maintain the welfare and security of New Zealand within the concept of the establishment and maintenance of international peace with honour.
- (c) To inculcate in the individual a sense of responsibility to his fellow citizens, his local community, and for the well-being of mankind.
- (d) To perpetuate the comradeship born of service and to promote the general well-being of servicemen and of former servicemen and their respective dependants.
- (e) To promote, foster and support the charitable objects of the Association and its Branches.
- (f) To pursue the resolutions of the National Council of RNZRSA
- (g) To relieve the poverty of servicemen and former servicemen, their respective dependents and the former dependents of deceased servicemen and ex-servicemen

POWERS

7. For the due attainment of its objects the Association shall have the following powers:-
- (a) To diffuse information on all matters affecting servicemen and former servicemen, and to print, publish, issue or circulate such papers, periodical books, circulars and other literary undertakings as may seem conducive to any of its objects.
 - (b) To affiliate with or accept affiliation from any society, body or Association having similar objects, or to join, co-operate with, or subscribe to or accept subscriptions from the funds of any such society, body or Association for the purpose of better attaining or otherwise furthering the objects and interests of the Association.
 - (c) To undertake and execute any trusts which may seem to the Association conducive to its objects and to invest the funds of any such trusts in the manner authorised for trustees by the Trustees Act 1956 or by any Act passed in amendment of or substitution for that Act and with all the powers given to trustees in relation to investment by that Act.
 - (d) To record in these Rules a Charitable Trust created on 21 May 1982, pursuant to the Deed of Trust as set out in the Eighth Schedule of these Rules for the more expeditious administration of the funds of the Association which are set aside for welfare purposes.
 - (e) Spare
 - (f) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Association may deem necessary or convenient for the purpose of any of the objects.
 - (g) To lend money or make advances to any other Association with or without security.
 - (h) To construct, maintain, alter, improve, enlarge, pull down, remove or replace, manage, carry on and control any buildings, or works which may seem to the Association likely to advance the Association's interests directly or indirectly.
 - (i) To sell, lease, exchange, bail, grant licences in respect of or otherwise deal with or dispose of the Association's undertakings or any part thereof, or any property or interest in any property rights, concessions or privileges belonging to the Association either together or in portions upon such terms as the Association may think fit.
 - (j) To establish, maintain and conduct licensed clubs and other clubs or similar institutions.
 - (k) To sponsor the formation of a Women's Section, the name of which shall be the Women's Section to the Taradale and District RSA, provided that the Rules of the Women's Section shall conform to the Guidelines established by RNZRSA and approved by the Association.

- (j) To prescribe By-laws as set out in the Sixth Schedule of these Rules for the operation of the Licence, not being inconsistent with these Rules, and the Licence Regulations (Seventh Schedule attached hereto). Such By-laws and Licence Regulations shall be as binding on all members as if they were part of these Rules.
- (m) To initiate, carry out and enforce disciplinary procedures as detailed in Rule 13 of these Rules.
- (n) To do such other things as in the opinion of the Association maybe incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the foregoing objects or the exercise of any of the foregoing powers.

NO PRIVATE PECUNIARY PROFIT, AND EXCEPTIONS

7A No private pecuniary profit may be made by any member from the Association, except that:

- (i) any member may receive full reimbursement for all expenses properly incurred by that member in connection with the affairs of the Association;
- (ii) the Association may pay reasonable remuneration to any Officer or servant of the Association (whether a member or not) in return for services actually rendered to the Association;
- (iii) any member may be paid all usual professional, business or trade charges for services rendered, time expended and all acts done by that member or by any firm or entity of which that member is a member, employee or associate in connection with the affairs of the Association;
- (iv) any member may retain any remuneration properly payable to that member by any company or undertaking with which the Association may be in any way concerned or involved for which that member has acted in any capacity whatever, notwithstanding that that member's connection with that company or undertaking is in any way attributable to that member's connection with the Association.

The Executive Committee and the Officers of the Association, in determining all reimbursements, remuneration and charges payable in the terms of this clause, shall ensure that the restrictions imposed by the following clause are strictly observed.

RESTRICTIONS ON BENEFITS TO AND INFLUENCE BY INTERESTED PERSONS

7B Notwithstanding anything contained or implied in these Rules, any person who is:

- (i) an Officer, Secretary or member of the Association; or
- (ii) a shareholder or director of any company carrying on any business of the Association; or
- (iii) a settlor or trustee of any trust which is a shareholder of any company carrying on any business of the Association; or

- (iv) an associated person (as defined by the Income Tax Act 2004) of any such Officer, Secretary, member, settlor, trustee, shareholder or director.

Shall not by virtue of that capacity in any way (whether directly or indirectly) determine, or materially influence in any way the determination of the nature or the amount of any benefit or advantage or income or the circumstances in which it is or is to be received, gained, achieved, afforded or derived by that person.

A person who in the course of and as part of the carrying on of his or her business of a professional public practice shall not, by reason only of his or her rendering professional services to the Association or to any company by which any business of the Association is carried on, be in breach of the terms of this rule.

ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP

8. The membership of the Association shall consist of:

(a) Returned Members

Persons who are defined in Rule 5 (a) of these Rules.

(b) Service Members

Persons who are defined in Rule 5 (b) of these Rules.

(c) General Members

Persons who are defined in Rule 5 (c) of these Rules.

(d) Youth Members

Persons who are defined in Rule 5(e) of these Rules.

(e) Life Members

Any Returned, Service or General member who has, on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, been awarded Life membership at a General Meeting of the Association, in recognition of local service.

A Life Member shall be deemed to be a financial member of the Association for all purposes without being required to pay an annual subscription.

(f) Honorary Life Members

Persons not being eligible for Returned or Service membership who have rendered outstanding service to the Association or to former servicemen, and have been duly elected at a General Meeting after consideration of a citation presented by the Executive Committee.

Honorary Life members shall have the right to speak at General Meetings but not to exercise a vote.

(g) Honorary Members

Persons not being eligible for Returned, Service or General membership who have rendered outstanding service to the Association or to former servicemen, and have been duly elected at a General Meeting after consideration of a citation presented by the Executive Committee.

Honorary members shall have the right to speak at General Meetings but not to exercise a vote, and shall be eligible for re-election from year to year.

(h) Corporate Members

Any Association, Club, or other incorporated body or business, approved by the Executive Committee.

A Corporate Member shall equate to three (3) members of the association and at all times the annual membership fee payable by a Corporate Member shall be not less than three (3) times the fee payable by a General Member.

A Corporate Member shall supply the Association with a list of Corporate Associates for the purposes of this membership. It shall at all times keep that list updated and will provide those persons with a method of identifying themselves to the Association, that is acceptable to the Association.

Those persons named or listed as "Corporate Associates" by "Corporate Members" and who are not otherwise members of the association, shall be deemed to be members of and subject to the rules of the association with the following provisos:

- ☐ The rights of entry to the club premises is restricted to such times as the "Corporate Member" is using the premises for an agreed purpose.
- ☐ They shall at all times carry and provide on request the form of identification agreed by the "Corporate Member".
- ☐ "Corporate Members" or "Corporate Associate" members shall not be entitled to hold office in the Association, to have voting or speaking rights at meetings of the Association, to participate in any reciprocal visiting rights with other Associations or Clubs, receive any membership badge of the Association or to represent the Association in any sporting or other fixture.

(i) Provisional Member

Persons who are defined in the Third 'A' Schedule to these rules.

Provisional members shall have the right to attend but not speak or vote at General Meetings.

MODE OF ADMISSION TO RETURNED AND SERVICE MEMBERSHIP

9. (a) Any person wishing to enrol for membership under categories 8(a) or 8 (b) shall complete and sign the appropriate form.
- (b) Upon proof that he is possessed of the necessary service credentials under these Rules, and is otherwise eligible, with the approval of the Executive Committee he shall be enrolled as a member.

MODE OF ADMISSION TO GENERAL MEMBERSHIP

10. Any person of good repute seeking admission as a "General" member shall be nominated for membership by a financial member. A person so nominated shall only be elected to membership provided he has paid the prescribed entrance fee and provided further that his election takes place by ballot of the Executive Committee after his name has been placed on the notice board for 14 days and objections have been duly called for.

The decision of the Executive Committee shall be final.

In the event of membership being refused all monies paid by the applicant by way of application fee and subscription shall be refunded to him.

MODE OF ADMISSION TO YOUTH MEMBERSHIP

- 10A. Any person of good repute seeking admission as a "Youth" member shall be nominated for membership by a financial member and admitted under Rules 8(a) and/or 8(b) and/or 8(c). A person so nominated shall only be elected to membership provided he has paid the prescribed entrance fee and provided further that his election takes place by ballot of the Executive Committee after his name has been placed on the notice board for 14 days and objections have been duly called for.

The decision of the Executive Committee shall be final.

In the event of membership being refused all monies paid by the applicant by way of application fee and subscription shall be refunded to him.

MODE OF ADMISSION TO CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

- 10B. Any Association, Club, other incorporated body or business wishing to apply for membership under rule 8(h) shall apply in writing and supply a list of all Corporate Associates to be covered by the Corporate Membership, and shall be nominated for membership by a financial member. An organisation so nominated shall only be elected to membership provided it has paid the prescribed fees and provided further that the election takes place by ballot of the Executive Committee after the name of the organisation and a list of its members has been placed on the notice board for 14 days and objections have been duly called for.

The decision of the Executive Committee shall be final and in the event of membership being refused all monies paid by the applicant by way of application fees or subscription shall be refunded.

MODE OF ADMISSION TO PROVISIONAL MEMBERSHIP

- 10C. Any person wishing to enrol for membership under category 8(i), shall complete and sign the appropriate form.

MODE OF TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP

- 11(a) The Association shall admit to its own membership any member of another Association who possesses the qualifications for membership as set out in Rules 8(a) or 8(b) of these Rules. Such transfer shall be affected on receipt of a certificate from the Secretary of that Association that the member has paid subscription for the current year and recommending him for membership.
- (b) Transfer of membership of General and/or Youth members, to another Association shall be at the discretion of that other Association's Executive Committee, whose decision shall be final.
- (c) Notification of any such transfers shall be forwarded forthwith to the member's former Association.

MODES OF TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 12. (a) Non-Payment of Subscription

In the event of any member failing to pay his subscription within sixty (60) days of the due date, he shall be sent a notice requiring him to pay his subscription within one month after the date of the notice.

Subject thereto and failing payment of the subscription and any arrears within the said period of one month the member's name shall be struck off the list of members and he shall cease to be a member, provided that the Executive Committee may at any time reinstate such member upon such terms as the Executive Committee in the exercise of its discretion may decide.

- (b) Resignation

Any member may resign his membership by letter addressed to the Secretary of the Association to that effect.

- (c) Expulsion

Refer to Rule 13(b) below.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

13. The Executive Committee shall have power to call on any member for an explanation of any charge of misconduct, within the provisions of these Rules, laid against him by any member or for any other sufficient cause.
- (a) On receipt of a complaint (or complaints) of misconduct against any member, the Executive Committee shall (unless it considers such complaint to be vexatious, or frivolous, or totally without foundation):
- (i) notify the member in writing of the complaint, and give him such particulars of the complaint as are available;
 - (ii) give the member a reasonable opportunity to provide an initial response or explanation in relation to the complaint, in writing or orally;
 - (iii) having completed steps (i) and (ii) above, the Executive Committee shall make a decision:
 - as to whether the matter is vexatious, frivolous, or without foundation, and if not, that it should proceed to a formal hearing;
 - as to whether the matter is so serious that, if the complaint is proved, expulsion is a possible outcome, or
 - as to whether the matter is not so serious as to warrant expulsion but may warrant suspension, and
 - as to whether an interim suspension of the member is appropriate.
- (b) Expulsion
- (1) Where the Executive Committee considers that the matter should proceed to a hearing, and that expulsion is a possible outcome if the complaint is proved, the Executive Committee shall:
- (i) convene a formal hearing of the Executive Committee to hear and consider the complaint;
 - (ii) provide the member with reasonable notice, in writing, of the time and place of such hearing. Such notification shall clearly state the purpose of the hearing, and shall include:
 - details of the complaint;
 - copies of any relevant documents or correspondence;
 - notification of the fact that expulsion is a possible outcome.
- (2) In convening and conducting the hearing, the Executive Committee shall follow the rules of natural justice, which require that the member be given a full and fair opportunity to present his or her response to the complaint. If the member wishes to be represented at the hearing by a lawyer, the Executive Committee shall fully consider such request, and make a ruling as to whether legal representation shall be permitted.

- (3) If, following the hearing, the Executive Committee considers that the complaint has been proven (on the balance of probabilities), the Executive Committee shall:
- (i) advise the member of its finding as to the complaint;
 - (ii) give the member the opportunity to make representations as to penalty or outcome;
 - (iii) after steps (i) and (ii) have been completed, deliver its decision as to whether the member is expelled or suspended (or neither).
 - (iv) if expulsion is ordered, the member shall forthwith surrender his badge to the Association for return to RNZRSA.
- (4) For clarity, it is recorded that:
- (i) the Executive Committee has the power to either expel or suspend, and in cases it deems appropriate, to impose an interim suspension prior to the hearing;
 - (ii) the Executive Committee is not obliged to impose suspension or expulsion, even if it finds the complaint(s) to have been proved.

(c) Suspension of Membership

Where the Executive Committee has received a complaint, but does not (in terms of rule 13(a)(iii) above) consider the matter so serious that expulsion is a possible outcome:

- (i) the Executive Committee may (but is not obliged to) delegate its powers in relation to the hearing of the complaint to a Disciplinary Committee [which may be a standing Committee, or a Committee which the Executive Committee may appoint in relation to any specific complaint(s)];
- (ii) if so appointed, the Disciplinary Committee shall consist of a minimum of three and a maximum of five members of the Association (and not necessarily members of the Executive Committee), and
- (iii) the Disciplinary Committee shall follow all of the procedural steps required of the Executive Committee as if acting under rule 13(b), but shall not have the power to impose expulsion.
- (iv) whether the matter is heard by the Executive Committee, or by a Disciplinary Committee, either Committee shall have the power to suspend the member for a period not exceeding twenty-four months.
The member shall not be obliged to surrender his badge during any such period of suspension.

APPEALS AGAINST SUSPENSION OR EXPULSION

14. (a) A member expelled, or suspended for more than one month shall have the right to appeal the decision to a tribunal of not less than three, nor more than five persons to be appointed by the Executive Committee

Members of the tribunal shall be members of the Association but not of the Executive Committee and should if possible include at least one member of the legal profession, who is a member of the Association.

Written Notice of Appeal shall be given to the Executive Committee of the Association within one month after the date of the decision expelling or suspending such member.

- (b) The Tribunal shall have wide discretion to determine the procedure which it will follow. In particular:
- (i) it may decide to completely rehear the evidence in the matter; or
 - (ii) it may decide the matter on the basis only of the record of the hearing of the Executive Committee or its appointed Disciplinary Committee. Should no record be available then the evidence shall be reheard.
 - (iii) it may agree to hear, or consider, evidence in addition to that put forward at the Disciplinary hearing, in whatever form it deems fit.
- (c) The tribunal may dismiss or allow the appeal or vary the decision.
- (d) The decision of the tribunal shall be final.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS

15. (a) An Annual General Meeting of the Association shall be held in the month of June in each year at such time and place as shall be fixed by the Executive Committee and the date shall be advertised at least 42 days in advance by insertion at least once in a newspaper circulating in the area of the Association.
- (b) At least 14 days' notice of such Meeting, stating the nature of the business to be brought before the Meeting shall be given to members either by post or by advertisement inserted at least once in a newspaper circulating in the area of the Association.

16. SPARE

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

17. (a) All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be Extraordinary General Meetings. The Executive Committee may, whenever it thinks fit, and shall upon a requisition in writing by twenty (20) of members, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting.

Any such requisition shall specify the objects of the meeting requisitioned, shall be signed by the members of the Association making the same, and shall be deposited with the Secretary of the Association. The meeting must be convened only for the purposes specified in the requisition. In case the Executive Committee for 14 days after the receipt of such a requisition fails to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to be held within 21 days from the receipt of such a requisition, the members making such a requisition or a majority of them, may themselves convene a meeting to be held not later than three calendar months after the date of the requisition.

- (b) Seven days' notice specifying the place the day and hour of any Extraordinary General Meeting and the purpose for which it is to be held shall be given either by an advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the area of the Association or by notice sent by post to each member.

QUORUM AT ANY GENERAL MEETINGS, EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

- 18. (a) The quorum for any General Meeting shall be twenty (20) of members admitted under Rules 8(a) and/or 8(b) and/or 8(c).
- (b) No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of such members is present.
- (c) If within half an hour from the time appointed for any meeting a quorum is not present at the meeting, if an Extraordinary General Meeting it shall be dissolved, in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place and the members present at the adjourned meeting may transact any business as if they constituted a full quorum.

METHOD OF VOTING

- 19. (a) Every question submitted to any general meeting of the Association or to any meeting of the Executive Committee shall be decided in the first instance on the voices or by a show of hands. Subject to the provisions of the Fifth Schedule hereto, every member present shall be entitled to record one vote and no more upon every question. In the case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall, whether upon a vote being taken by a show of hands or by a ballot as hereinafter provided for, have a second or casting vote.
- (b) Unless a ballot is demanded by the Chairman or by at least three members present, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or lost and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
- (c) If a ballot is demanded it shall be taken in such a manner and at such a time as the Chairman of the meeting may direct and the result of the ballot shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.

A demand for a ballot may be withdrawn. The demand for a ballot shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a ballot has been demanded.

- (d) Votes may be given personally or by proxy.

ADJOURNMENTS OF MEETINGS

20. The Chairman of any meeting may with the consent of that meeting adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

NOTICES OF MOTION

21. Any notice of motion must be in the hands of the Secretary at least 21 days before the meeting at which the motion is intended to be moved.

PATRON

22. At any Annual General Meeting the members may, on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, elect for a period of three years a Patron of the Association.]
